TAMAR Graphics Scores an “All-Around Victory”

September 19, 2007 (Waltham, MA) – Tamar Wallace has every reason to look up these days. The Principal Creative of TAMAR Graphics has been named the winner of two design awards from this year’s 2007 American Graphic Design Awards.

“I’m ecstatic for everyone involved,” Wallace said of her achievement. “For my business, it’s a confirmation that we produce top-quality design, and it gives my clients the opportunity to say that their pieces are award-winning. It’s an all-around victory.”

The American Graphic Design Awards select their winners from more than 10,000 entries nationwide to represent the best and brightest in graphic design, according to Graphic Design USA Editor Gordon Kaye and Awards Director Rachel Goldberg.

The winning pieces from TAMAR Graphics include a direct mail brochure for CU Mortgage Center, Orlando, FL and the design and layout of the book Galvanized, by Joe Hoppe, for Dalton Publishing, Austin, TX.
